David J. Seleb Appointed New Director of Indian Trails Public Library District

David J. Seleb has been appointed Director of the Indian Trails Public Library District. He will begin on Tuesday, November 1. Currently, Mr. Seleb is Director of the Winnetka–Northfield Public Library District, a position he has held since 2007. For five years he was also the Director of the Blue Island Public Library in Blue Island, Illinois. Mr. Seleb has twenty-two years of library experience, including other positions at the Metropolitan Library System and at the Suburban Library System. His bachelor's degree is from Saint Xavier College and he also has a Master of Library and Information Science from Dominican University in River Forest.

Mr. Seleb is active in a number of professional associations including the Illinois Library Association and the American Library Association. He presently is also involved in several community groups and is a board member of the Winnetka Chamber of Commerce as well as Family Service of Winnetka–Northfield.

Harper College Student Photography Exhibit through October 31

Photography by students from Harper College's Continuing Education Photography Classes, taught by Ernie Schweit, will be on exhibit at the Library.

A public reception will be held on Monday, October 3, 7 to 8:30 p.m., where Ernie Schweit and the featured student photographers will talk about their photographs and meet with the public.

Library Reaches Out to Home Educators

Thursday, October 13, 7:00 p.m.

The Indian Trails Public Library District has planned a presentation of our Library's resources, databases, and other tools that can help enhance your homeschooling experience.

The program will include a discussion time where parents can offer suggestions on how the Library can better meet their needs. We are looking forward to hearing your ideas. A tour of our facility is also planned.

Home educators outside the Indian Trails Public Library District are welcome and encouraged to attend this program. Registration required. To register go to Homeschool Connection on the Library's
